THE WINDING OF THE CLOCK.

Ever since Eli Terry, the celebrated clock maker, in 1790, made this clock for Col. Moses Lyman (the fourth Moses Lyman in direct descent first born son by that name in America), for the old Lyman homestead on Town Hill, Goshen, Conn., a Moses Lyman has had the duty and the pleasure of winding it every Saturday night. It is now in the home of Moses Lyman, eighth in direct descent first born son named Moses, at Longmeadow, Mass.
